2006 SEMI-ANNUAL REPORT
APRIL 30, 2006

Bancroft Fund Ltd. (successor to Bancroft Convertible Fund, Inc.) operates as a closed-end, diversified management investment company and invests primarily in convertible securities, with the objectives of providing income and the potential for capital appreciation -- which objectives the Fund considers to be relatively equal, over the long-term, due to the nature of the securities in which it invests.

TO OUR SHAREHOLDERS

June 12, 2006

This is our first shareholder report since the Fund reorganized as a Delaware statutory trust, and changed its name to Bancroft Fund Ltd. As a Delaware statutory trust, the amount of state taxes that the Fund will pay annually will be reduced, and the Fund will enjoy a higher flexibility in governance. For example, from time to time, in between scheduled meetings of the Board, the trustees are asked to approve certain matters affecting the Fund. Formerly, all board members were required to sign a consent approving such matters. As a Delaware statutory trust, the trustees are permitted to act between regular meetings by a consent signed by at least 75% of the trustees. This will permit the Board to act in a timelier manner if a trustee is unavailable to approve such action.

The convertible market has undergone many major changes over the thirty-five years that Bancroft has existed. One of the most significant was the creation of mandatory conversion securities (a type of convertible that has a required conversion or redemption feature). These convertibles usually provide a much higher yield than their underlying common stock, but rather than the holder having the option of taking the shares or cash at maturity or redemption, the holder must convert even if conversion value is less than issue price. Issues of this type became a sizeable portion of the convertible market starting in the '90s. While these issues (sometimes known as DECS, PERCS, or ELKS) tend to be more volatile than traditional convertibles, they have performed well as a group. According to Citigroup, since December 1994 the mandatory portion of the convertible market has provided the best performance, followed by cash coupon convertible bonds, convertible preferreds and zero coupon bonds (which also tend to be the least volatile).

The convertible securities market also has undergone substantial changes over the last two years. According to Citigroup, the average premium-to-conversion value (the positive difference between the market price of a convertible security and the value of the underlying common stock) for May 2004 was 42.9%; by May 2005 it had fallen to 35.2% and this May it was 30.3%. Citigroup also measured a decline in current yield from 3.9% in 2004 and 2005 to 3.5% in May 2006. Much of this premium compression and current yield decline was due to rising equity prices. The higher premium and current yield levels in 2004 made for a convertible market that was less equity sensitive and more interest rate sensitive than it is now. The convertible market also appears to have ended its decline in total market value over the last three years. New issues and market appreciation were greater than redemptions as Merrill Lynch measured a rise in the market value from $263 billion in 2005 to $266 billion in May 2006.

The Fund's performance based on industry exposure has changed recently. While positive returns continue to come from the energy sector, we have also seen better performance in our aerospace and defense exposure. Underperforming industries have been health care and pharmaceuticals. We believe these underperforming industries lagged due to the perception that there will be greater government involvement in these businesses.

For the ten-year period ended April 30, 2006, Bancroft's net asset value (NAV) had outperformed the average NAV performance of the closed-end funds included in the closed-end convertible fund category tracked by Lipper, Inc. and published in the Lipper Closed-End Performance Analysis. However, for the one-year, three-years and five-years ended April 30, 2006, the Fund underperformed the average NAV of the eleven funds in its category.

Visit our website, www.bancroftfund.com, for additional information on the Fund, such as a monthly portfolio summary which lists the Fund's largest holdings. Quarterly updates may be found in the Financial Reports section, and other financial data is often included in press releases.

The results of the 2006 annual meeting of shareholders are shown in the Miscellaneous Notes section of this report. We thank you for your support. At its May meeting, the Board of Trustees declared a dividend of $0.18 per share. The dividend consists of undistributed net investment income and will be payable on June 29, 2006 to shareholders of record on June 15, 2006.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)-----

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Organization - Bancroft Fund Ltd. (successor to Bancroft Convertible Fund, Inc. (established in 1971)) (the "Fund"), is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 as a diversified, closed-end management investment company. On March 17, 2006, the Fund was reorganized as a Delaware statutory trust from a Delaware corporation.

(b) Use of Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(c) Indemnification - Under the Fund's organizational documents, each trustee, officer or other agent of the Fund (including the Fund's investment adviser) is indemnified against certain liabilities that may arise out of performance of their duties to the Fund. Additionally, in the normal course of business, the Fund enters into contracts that contain a variety of indemnification clauses. The Fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Fund that have not yet occurred. The risk of material loss as a result of such indemnification is considered remote.

(d) Federal Income Taxes - The Fund's policy is to distribute substantially all of its taxable income within the prescribed time and to otherwise comply with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to regulated investment companies. Therefore, no provision for federal income or excise taxes is believed necessary. At October 31, 2005, the Fund had a capital loss carryforward of $4,596,296 available to the extent allowed by tax law to offset future net capital gains, if any. To the extent that the carryforward is used, no capital gains distributions will be made. $4,045,634 of the total carryforward expires in 2010, $424,570 expires in 2011 and $126,092 expires in 2013.

(e) Security Valuation - Investments in securities traded on a national securities exchange are valued at market using the last reported sales price as of the close of regular trading. Listed securities for which no sales were reported are valued at the mean between closing reported bid and asked prices as of the close of regular trading. Unlisted securities traded in the over-the-counter market are valued using an evaluated quote provided by an independent pricing service. The independent pricing service derives an evaluated quote by obtaining dealer quotes, analyzing the listed markets, reviewing trade execution data and employing sensitivity analysis. Evaluated quotes may also reflect appropriate factors such as individual characteristics of the issue, communications with broker-dealers, and other market data. Securities for which quotations are not readily available, restricted securities and other assets are valued at fair value as determined in good faith by management pursuant to procedures approved by the Board of Trustees. Short-term debt securities with original maturities of 60 days or less are valued at amortized cost.

(f) Securities Transactions and Related Investment Income - Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date (date the order to buy or sell is executed) with gain or loss on the sale of securities being determined based upon identified cost. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date and interest income is recorded on the accrual basis, including accretion of discounts and amortization of non-equity premium. For certain securities, known as "contingent payment debt instruments," Federal tax regulations require the Fund to record non-cash, "contingent" interest income in addition to interest income actually received. Contingent interest income amounted to 6 cents per share for the six months ended April 30, 2006. In addition, Federal tax regulations require the Fund to reclassify realized gains on contingent payment debt instruments to interest income. At April 30, 2006 there were unrealized gains of approximately 1 cent per share on contingent payment debt instruments.

(g) Change in Method of Accounting - Effective November 1, 2004, the Fund began amortizing discounts and premiums on all debt securities. Prior to November 1, 2004, the Fund amortized discounts on original issue discount debt securities. The new method of amortization was adopted in accordance with the provisions of the AICPA Audit and Accounting Guide, Audits of Investment Companies and the financial highlights and statement of changes in net assets presented herein have been restated to reflect the new method retroactive to November 1, 2001. The effect of this accounting change is included in the financial highlights for the years ended October 31, 2002, 2003 and 2004. The cumulative effect of this accounting change had no impact on the total net assets of the Fund or on distributions for tax purposes, but resulted in a $103,986 increase in the cost of securities held and a corresponding $103,986 reduction in the net unrealized gains based on the securities held on November 1, 2001. These changes had no effect on previously reported total net assets or total returns.

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

(h) Distributions to Shareholders - Distributions to shareholders from net investment income are recorded by the Fund on the ex-dividend date. Distributions from capital gains, if any, are recorded on the ex-dividend date and paid annually. The amount and character of income and capital gains to be distributed are determined in accordance with income tax regulations, which may differ from generally accepted accounting principles. The tax character of distributions paid during the fiscal years ended October 31, 2005 and 2004 were $3,894,853 and $3,826,570, respectively, both from ordinary income.

NOTE 2 - MANAGEMENT FEE AND OTHER TRANSACTIONS WITH AFFILIATES

The Fund has entered into an investment advisory agreement with Davis-Dinsmore Management Company ("Davis-Dinsmore"). Pursuant to the investment advisory agreement, Davis-Dinsmore provides the Fund with investment advice, office space and facilities. Under the terms of the investment advisory agreement, the Fund pays Davis-Dinsmore on the last day of each month an advisory fee for such month computed at an annual rate of 0.75% of the first $100,000,000 and 0.50% of the excess over $100,000,000 of the Fund's net assets in such month.

The Fund, pursuant to an administrative services agreement with Davis-Dinsmore, has agreed to pay Davis-Dinsmore for certain accounting and other administrative services provided to the Fund. Under the administrative services agreement, the Fund pays Davis-Dinsmore compensation in the amount of $25,000 per year, payable on a monthly basis.

Certain officers and trustees of the Fund are officers and directors of Davis-Dinsmore.

NOTE 3 - PORTFOLIO ACTIVITY

At April 30, 2006 there were 5,625,134 shares of beneficial interest outstanding, with a par value of $0.01 per share. During the six months ended April 30, 2006, 36,681 shares were issued in connection with reinvestment of dividends from net investment income, resulting in an increase in paid-in capital of $655,492.

Purchases and sales of investments, exclusive of corporate short-term notes, aggregated $37,881,705 and $39,268,807, respectively, for the six months ended April 30, 2006.

A distribution of $0.18 per share from net investment income was declared on May 16, 2006, payable June 29, 2006 to shareholders of record at the close of business June 15, 2006.
