2004 Semi-Annual Report
April 30, 2004

Bancroft Convertible Fund, Inc. (the "Fund") operates as a closed-end, diversified management investment company and invests primarily in convertible securities, with the objectives of providing income and the potential for capital appreciation -- which objectives the Fund considers to be relatively equal, over the long-term, due to the nature of the securities in which it invests.

BANCROFT CONVERTIBLE FUND

To Our Shareholders

The economic expansion continues to develop as non-farm payrolls have increased by over one million in 2004. As usually occurs in such expansions, interest rates have gone up. Over the past six months interest rates have gone from approximately 3% to 4% on five year U.S. Treasury bonds, from 4.3% to 5% on five year BBB (investment grade) bonds and from 6.9% to 7.5% on five year B industrial bonds. Other maturities have seen similar rises in rates. So, even though the Federal Reserve Board has not raised rates yet, the bond market has.

Oil prices appear to have topped out for now, but we expect they may remain in a range of $35-$40 per barrel rather than the old expectation of $22-$28 per barrel. Further, gasoline prices should remain high as the refineries that make gasoline for our cars and trucks are capacity-constrained. No new refinery has been built in the U.S. since 1976 and we have only half of the refineries we had in 1981.

The combination of higher interest rates and higher energy prices leads us to believe that economic growth will be a bit slower than the 4% we expected, but we still expect growth around 3.5% in 2004 and 2005.

From Bancroft Convertible Fund's founding in 1971, the Fund's strategy has been to use convertible securities as an equity alternative to reduce risk and volatility. This strategy tends to outperform in bear markets and lag in bull markets. The net asset value of the Fund has outperformed the S&P 500 stock index for the five years ended April 30, 2004 and underperformed for the one year ended April 30, 2004. The nature of the Fund's convertible securities investments explains much of this difference in performance during these periods. The Fund's NAV slightly underperformed the average of its peer-group for the four months ended April 30, 2004. Our peers consist of the thirteen closed-end convertible funds in the Lipper Closed-End Performance Analysis, but of these thirteen only four of these, including Bancroft, remain unleveraged convertible funds with greater than 80% of their investments in convertible securities. The addition of leverage usually makes portfolios more volatile and the addition of non-convertible debt increases exposure to interest rate risk.

The results of the 2004 annual shareholders' meeting are shown in the Miscellaneous Notes section of this report. We thank you for your participation and support. Additional information on the Fund is available on the Fund's website (www.bancroftfund.com). Further, shareholders who wish to obtain a copy of the most recent report on the Fund issued by Standard and Poor's should contact us.

At its May meeting, the Fund's Board of Directors declared a quarterly dividend of 17 cents per share. The dividend consists of undistributed net investment income and will be payable on June 29, 2004 to shareholders of record on June 15, 2004.

BANCROFT CONVERTIBLE FUNDNotes to Financial Statements (unaudited)*1. Significant Accounting Policies

Bancroft Convertible Fund, Inc. (the "Fund") is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 as a diversified, closed-end management investment company. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The following is a summary of significant accounting policies consistently followed by the Fund in the preparation of its financial statements:

(a) Security Valuation

Investments in securities traded on a national securities exchange are valued at market using the last reported sales price as of the close of regular trading. Unlisted securities traded in the over-the-counter market and listed securities for which no sales were reported, are valued at the mean between closing reported bid and asked prices as of the close of regular trading. Securities for which quotations are not readily available, restricted securities and other assets are valued at fair value as determined in good faith by management with the approval of the Board of Directors. Short-term debt securities with initial maturities of 60 days or less are valued at amortized cost.

(b) Securities Transactions and Related Investment Income

Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date (date the order to buy or sell is executed) with gain or loss on the sale of securities being determined based upon identified cost. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date and interest income is recorded on the accrual basis, including accretion of discounts and amortization of non-equity premium. For certain securities, known as "contingent payment debt instruments," Federal tax regulations require the Fund to record non-cash, "contingent" interest income in addition to interest income actually received. Contingent interest income amounted to 5 cents per share for the six months ended April 30, 2004.

(c) Federal Income Taxes

It is the policy of the Fund to distribute substantially all of its taxable income within the prescribed time and to otherwise comply with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to regulated investment companies. Therefore, no provision for federal income or excise taxes is believed necessary. At October 31, 2003, the net capital loss carryforward of the Fund which may be used to offset possible future net realized gains was approximately $8,230,848, and expires in 2009, 2010 and 2011.

(d) Dividends and Distributions to Shareholders

The liability for dividends and distributions payable is recorded on the ex-dividend date.

(e) Market Risk

It is the Fund's policy, under normal circumstances, to invest at least 80% of its assets in convertible securities. Although convertible securities do derive part of their value from that of the securities into which they are convertible, they are not considered derivative financial instruments. However, certain of the Fund's investments include features which render them more sensitive to price changes in their underlying securities. Thus they expose the Fund to greater downside risk than traditional convertible securities, but still less than that of the underlying common stock. At April 30, 2004, the market value of those securities was $24,955,866, representing 21.6% of net assets.

2. Management Fee and Other Transactions with Affiliates

The management fee is paid to the investment adviser, Davis-Dinsmore Management Company (the "Adviser"). The contract provides for payment of a monthly advisory fee, computed at an annual rate of 3/4 of 1% of the first $100,000,000 and 1/2 of 1% of the excess over $100,000,000 of the Fund's net asset value in such month.

The Adviser invests the Fund's assets, furnishes office equipment and facilities, and pays the salaries of all executive officers of the Fund, except that the costs associated with personnel and certain non-personnel expenses of the office of the Treasurer up to a maximum of $25,000 a year are reimbursed by the Fund. Such reimbursements amounted to $12,500 for the six months ended April 30, 2004. The officers of the Fund are also directors, officers or employees of the Adviser, and are compensated by the Adviser.

3. Portfolio Activity

At April 30, 2004 there were 5,557,138 shares of $.01 par value common stock outstanding (9,000,000 shares authorized). During the six months ended April 30, 2004, 33,362 shares were issued in connection with reinvestment of dividends from net investment income, resulting in an increase in paid-in capital of $628,542.

On December 16, 2003, the Fund completed a rights offering of Common Stock to its stockholders at the rate of one common share for each 6 rights held by stockholders of record on November 13, 2003. The rights offering was fully subscribed, resulting in the issuance of 797,918 common shares at a price of $17.82, and proceeds of $14,218,899 to the Fund prior to the deduction of expenses. The net asset value per share of the Fund's Common Stock was reduced by approximately $0.50 per share as a result of the issuance.

Purchases and sales of investments, exclusive of corporate short-term notes, aggregated $58,698,124 and $48,431,018, respectively, for the six months ended April 30, 2004.

A distribution of $0.17 per share from net investment income was declared on May 18, 2004, payable June 29, 2004 to shareholders of record at the close of business June 15, 2004.
